The CBBA Evangelism Rally was really a time of refreshment and challenge. The music from the combined choirs of First Baptist Camden and Huntingdon really led us to a time of celebrating in the Word of God. Bro. Willie McLaurin ascended the platform and began the preliminaries for his challenging message to be about the "Father's Business". I believe everyone there was challenged and convicted in some way or another. Thanks goes to First Baptist for hosting the Evangelism Rally and to all who had a part in the night of worship. The question still remains that was stated by Pilate. "What then will I do with Jesus who is called the Christ?" Everyone must answer this question. In fact, all who have reached the age of accountability has answered this question.

We are on one side of the fence or the other.

What does one do with Jesus before salvation?

What does one do with Jesus after salvation?

What does one do with Jesus because of salvation?

What future does one have with Jesus after salvation?

What future does one who rejects Jesus have when opportunity for salvation has passed?

Our past life is covered by the blood of Christ. Our present life is being fulfilled because of the blood of Christ and our future life is secure because of the blood of Christ. (Heb. 9:27)(Heb. 9:12-14)

The shedding of blood, and particularly the shedding of Jesus' blood, cleanses from sin.

Look again at the words from the favorite hymn "When We All Get To Heaven".

Sing the wondrous love of Jesus, Sing his mercy and his grace,

In the Mansions bright and blessed, he'll prepare for us a place.

While we walk the pilgrim pathway, Clouds will overspread the sky, but when traveling days are over, not a shadow not a sigh.

Onward to the prize before us, soon his beauty we'll behold,

Soon the pearly gates will open, and we shall tread the streets of gold.

When we all get to heaven, we will sing and shout the victory.

Time is short. Are you preparing for His coming?

Hallelujah, Hallelujah, hallelujah!!!!

Even so, come Lord Jesus.

Doing Together What We Cannot Do Alone.
